

Kingdom Fall

ReinXeed

Like the wind we travel, like fire we burn
We travel to receive the fire burning deep inside our heart
You are on my side, through this darkness I can't see
Land of Heelh we could receive a better tomorrow

Look close you'll see the fire burning still
The fire that burns for mankind forever

Fly to eternity far in the distant skies
Never will I see my kingdom fall again
In the temple of ReinXeed the Langarin still lies
Far away to eternity we'll pray that we will go
We hide away from the darkness in our way
Soon we'll find the way to return to my home again
Flay to eternity far in the distant skies
Never will I see my kingdom fall again
