

The Light

ReinXeed

Dream you will find happiness
See what you want to see
For the one we pray to return we could sacrifice it all
So many people asking day by day why,
Why must this misery go on forever now?

Oh, we feel like you feel
We trust and believe and we'll stand up and fight
We see what you see
In darkness you lend me the light

Don't have to travel round the world to see
To see the world we regret
Fly away to a better tomorrow,
Together we can make it real
Yeah!

Someday I know we'll find the answer we search,
The answer to the question why

Oh, we feel like you feel
We trust and believe and we'll stand up and fight
We see what you see;
In darkness you lend me the light
