

A Hurt Like That

Relient K

Wait
I'm headed up to your place tonight
I'm crawling out of my head
For the first time
In such a long time
These days
Can't seem to throw it away
That shirt I know you like
With the black stripes
Cherry wine
Never could get rid of those stains

I know
And I know
And I know
And I know
I said I'd never call back
Cause you already told me
It's over
It's over
My world
Turning cold
I\'m screaming don't look back
From a hurt like that

Don't you care?
Don't you know I can't go anywhere?
And I know
And I know
And I know
And I know
That I could never come back
From a hurt like that

Sometimes
I see you deep then I let it go
I wish I knew how to let you know
But I don't
And god I really hate your boyfriend
Do you need him?
Cause everybody's always tryna tell me
That I look just like him?
Do you believe them?

I know
And I know
And I know
And I know
I said I'd never call back
Cause you already told me
It's over
It's over
My world
Turning cold
From a hurt like that

Don't you care?
Don't you know I can't go anywhere?
And I know
And I know
And I know
And I know
That I could never come back
From a hurt like that

Twisting me up
Crushing me down
Every time
Push me away
With somebody else
Thought you were mine
Twisting me up
Crushing me down
Every time
Push me away
With somebody else
Thought you were mine

I know
And I know
And I know
And I know
I said I'd never call back
Cause you already told me
It's over
It's over
My world
Turning cold
I\'m screaming don't look back
From a hurt like that

Don't you care?
Don't you know I can't go anywhere?
And I know
And I know
And I know
And I know
That I could never come back
