

Bmi Valentine

Relient K

My name's Taylor Jean and I'm an alcoholic
I'm a part of the machine that makes you grab your wallet
When we write the country songs that keep the country folks singing along

A work on music road, a tough road to hold
There's some many different girls that I would like to know
And so I check the single box and I end up going out a lot

It's a lonely life sitting on top of the charts
Only every night, exquisite taste, expensive wine
Now I'm whining like I don't know if I have a heart
BMI Valentine

I know it doesn't hurt to have an awesome second verse
But I don't wanna write another line to say 'BMI Valentine'
Again my friends, it's so uncouth to bear it all and tell the truth

It's a lonely life sitting on top of the charts
Only every night, exquisite taste, expensive wine
And now I'm whining like I don't know if I have a heart
