

Candy Hearts

Relient K

I don't know where to start
Opening a bag of candy hearts
Lay 'em on the table and one by one
See if we can make up something fun

Don't know where to start
Opening a bag of candy hearts
Lay 'em on the table and one by one
See if we can make up something fun
Should be easy, 'cause you're so true
Baby girl, well, I love you

Don't know where to start
Bathing in the alley by the rusted cars
Thinking I'm in no shape for the sushi bar
But who's looking anyway? No one's looking anyway

And I've got these sparrin' scars
From a tangle with a dumpster in the parking lot
And I wish there was a sofa in a comfy spot
Where I could waste the day away, not today, not today

If I don't know where to start
Well, I remember candy hearts
As complicated as we are
(It's not so hard)
And we've got these trusty cards
Hidden in the pockets of our leotards
And as complicated as we are
(It's not so hard)

It's not so hard
