

The Thief

Relient K

I guess it's safe to say
You're never comin' back
And I understand
Why you wouldn't want to
I guess it's up to me
To find a way to get to you

And I can't see you getting used to Living in the midst of your perfection
And I'm so lost, how can you trust?
Somewhere the sun is always shinin'

And there's just one last thing
That I have to say
As we reflect on the mess
Of all this I've made
It was cowardice
that made me push you away
I was so afraid
'cause you were so much better than me

I guess it's safe to say
You're never comin' back
And I understand
Why you wouldn't want to
I guess it's up to me
To find a way to get to you
