

Cinderella

Remi Wolf

I can be yellow, I can be orange by the afternoon
And I'm purple, so quick when I switch it up
Hurtful to mellow
I can be anything I wanted to, any color of the rainbow
Yeah, me and the boys in the hotel lobby

Low tide, moon's so bright
Moving my hips from left to right
My, my check my phone
Feel it in my belly when you're driving home like
Low tide, moon's so bright
My, my check my phone
Feel it in my belly when you're driving home like

Like Cinderella making babies on the company's dime
(Oh! Oh!)
We're making pennies out of paper, better find a new slime

Me and the boys in the hotel lobby
Me and the boys in the hotel lobby
Me and the boys in the hotel lobby

Is there something wrong with the way I'm designed?
Can't find comfort in anything, yeah
Should I change, should I leave myself behind?
And buy a boat to a private island
Baby girl (Girl), won't you dry your eyes? (Dry your eyes)
Don't stress because you're doing it right (Doing it right)
What they say, anything at all
Don't need a thing because you're in control

I can be yellow (Yellow), I can be orange by the afternoon
And I'm purple (Purple), so quick when I switch it up
Hurtful to mellow (Mellow)
I can be anything I wanted to, any color of the rainbow (Rainbow)
Yeah, me and the boys in the hotel lobby

Low tide, moon's so bright
My, my check my phone
Feel it in my belly when you're driving home like
