

Sally

Remi Wolf

Dog, donor, dog, donor
Dog, donor, dog, donor
Dog, donor, dog, donor
Dog, donor, dog, donor

Sitting watching television
Breaking things in the kitchen, anxious to find out
You were just a premonition
Showing up late as I'm turning the lights out
And I've been waiting so long
Just trying to tell you
That lately all of my songs
I'm singing about you

I don't wanna waste another
I don't wanna waste another
Night, oh, ooh

Sleep in the Toyota
Feet are getting colder
Blasting bossa nova
Waiting up another night, oh, ooh
God, she's a Mona
Hot like Arizona
Drinking mad Corona
Waiting up another night

Find me with the dirty dishes
I've been drying up, I'm cleaning with white out
See it with blurry vision
Oh, I'm fucked up, I'm drowning the sound out

I've been waiting so long
I'm trying to tell you
That lately all of my songs
I'm singing about you

I don't wanna waste another
I don't wanna waste another
Night, oh, ooh (Another, I don't wanna wait another)

Sleep in the Toyota
Blasting bossa nova
Waiting up another night, oh, ooh
God, she's a Mona
Hot like Arizona
Drinking mad Corona
