

Awake, Asleep

REMMI

No money, no money left anymore
That's nothing, that's nothing we can't afford

It's unbelievable what people would believe these days
It's unbelievable the prices I am willing to pay
Close your eyes, are we living a dream?
Close your eyes, are we living a dream? Living a dream?

Are we awake? Are we asleep?
Come on, tell me what it really means
Are we enslaved? Are we free?
Come on, tell me what I need to be
Are we awake? Are we asleep?
Come on, tell me what it means
Are we living the dream? Are we living the dream?

I miss you, before we turned to machines
We were human, we were such beautiful things

It's unbelievable what people will believe these days
It's unbelievable the choices I am willing to make, make
Close your eyes, are we living a dream?
(Nothing's ever enough, you don't know what you want yet)
Close your eyes, are we living a dream? Living a dream?
(Nothing's ever enough, you don't know what you want yet)

Are we awake? Are we asleep?
Come on, tell me what it really means
Are we enslaved? Are we free?
Come on, tell me what I need to be
Are we awake? Are we asleep?
Come on, tell me what it means
Are we living the dream? Are we living the dream?

Nothing's ever enough, if you don't know what you want yet
Nothing's ever enough, if you don't know what you want yet
Nothing's ever enough, if you don't know what you want yet
Nothing's ever enough, if you don't know what you want. Yeah.
Yeah

Are we awake? Are we asleep?
Come on, tell me what it really means
Are we enslaved? Are we free?
Come on, tell me what I need to be
Are we awake? Are we asleep?
Come on, tell me what it means
Are we living the dream? Are we living the dream?

Are we awake? Are we asleep?
Come on, tell me what it really means
Are we enslaved? Are we free?
Come on, tell me what I need to be
Are we awake? Are we asleep?
Come on, tell me what it means
Are we living the dream? Are we living the dream?
