

Heartstrings

Remo Drive

I'm trying to replace
All of my heartstrings
The going gets boring
So you get going
I need you more
Than you need me
But who am I to blame
It isn't meant to be

And I've felt this way
For so goddamn long
Reach for your heart
Knowing I won't

I need to confess
All of my secrets
Your smile eyes are
My only weakness
Your problems are mine
By design
Our blood pumps in time
You and I

And I've felt this way
For so goddamn long
Reach for your heart
Knowing I won't

You hold my heart
Though so do I
You and me
I and I

And I've felt this way
For so goddamn long
Reach for your heart
Knowing I won't
