

Separate Beds

Remo Drive

Separate Beds and separate bathrooms
Separate floors, same foundation
Separate lives, separate friends
Separate hearts, and same creations

Honey
We've got a good thing
Let's keep our old love young

Desperate men, desperate women
Restless wives, restless husbands
Make their days, do the dishes
Watch TV, and then fall asleep

Honey
We've got a good thing
Let's keep our old love young
Honey
We've got a good thing
Let's keep our old love young

Because nothing perfect lasts forever
Nothing perfect lasts
Perfect is more like the weather
It comes and then will pass

Honey
We've got a good thing
Let's keep our old love young
Honey
We've got a good thing
Let's keep our old love young

Nothing perfect lasts forever
Nothing perfect lasts forever
Nothing perfect lasts forever
Nothing perfect lasts forever
