Shakin'

Remo Drive

I think I heard you coming
Rattled eyes touch the ceiling
The walls were clapping as you sang for me
An unintentional voyeur
A visitor from younger years
Reverberations through the drywall hang and scream

Lustful in your breathing
Explosions and soft screaming

You shook me all night long
Yeah you shook me all night long

I think I heard you coming
Breathing hard and sharp inward
Your calls came to me through the ventilation bleed
And I had just gotten here
And I was completely unaware
Of the soundtrack you would later play for me

Lustful in your breathing
Explosions and soft screaming

You shook me all night long
Yeah you shook me all night long
