

The Truth

Remo Drive

I don't mind killing time
Hang the clock at midnight see if I care
I don't mind darkness
I know the sun is just behind the curtain

Burning up, burning up
Ooh I'd love to blame it on the sun

I don't mind killing time
Patience is a virtue of a strong mind
I don't mind darkness
I see it every night up in the sky

Burning up, burning up
Ooh I'd love to blame it on the sun

When I'm with you I don't feel
Like I'm running from the truth
