

Dream Sequence

Jane Remover

You'd rather live to please
And die a virgin
Said you wanna go see the world
But you're stuck at work

I wanna take it serious
And take it slow
Said, "I wanna make it to Christmas" (Oh)
But I fall off the bone (Oh)

And I could wish he hears this
But when he does I won't
I'd rather live to please
The lips beneath his nose

If you could go anywhere, where would you go?
If you could go anywhere, where would you go?
If you could go anywhere, would you wanna stay here?
If you could go anywhere, where would you go?
If you could go anywhere, where would you go?
If you could go anywhere, would you wanna stay?

And when the wind whistles, you'll wake up unlucky again
With none of your things
Your bandmates, your lovers, and friends
