

If I'm being honest, I appreciate the offer
But I don't deserve the sleep tonight
Come watch me
Be someone I'm not
Poison the earth and pay the price
(Tell me I'm good, I'm a good girl)

I swear to God, give me a reason to be out my mind
Tell me I'm good, I'm a good girl
And if I fall, don't ask me whether or not you'll be at the bot tom
Tell me I'm good, I'm a good girl
And if I fall, don't ask me "Yeah?"

I let him do the talking
I'm leaking from the faucet
I watch it trickle down my spine
Undone, it's wrong to have all the fun
So I let it hurt to say he's mine

Arm candy fallen onto his lap
Take a bite
To soak all the pain, he tells me how he misses the past
Well, I wish I could say the same

I swear to God, give me a reason to be out my mind
(Tell me I'm good, I'm a good girl)
And if I fall, don't ask me whether or not you'll be at the bot
tom
(Tell me I'm good, I'm a good girl)

And I know you can never scare me
And I know you could never scare me
To ask what it seems, I think he wants it (And I know)
He's itching just to get a turn (You can never scare me)
To ask what it seems, I think he wants me (And I know)
He's itching just to get inside (You could never scare me) Undone, it's wrong to have all the fun (To ask what it seems, I think he wants it, he's itching just to get a turn) So I let it hurt to say he's mine (To ask what it seems, I thin k he wants me, he's itching just)

And if I fall, don't ask me whether or not you'll be at the bot tom
(Yeah)
