

Holding A Leech

Jane Remover

How much longer 'til I'm truly alone?
Go guess who I am, in the spotlight, I can't stand to hear a voice that's not my own
Nobody on stage, but they all sing along

Find you if I reach for the stars
Maim me, I run, but I can't go far
Too weak to pick up the guitar, and you do it 'cause you have to
Not 'cause you want to Go sit in the car

You want me 'til I'm sick on the floor
I'm in hysterics, throwing up "I love you, please don't leave,
I can fix it"
And it's hard for you to tell if I mean it
Under your belly, I'm all over your shoes
Gripping onto your ankles, I can't tell if I like it
And you choose me 'cause you have to
Not 'cause you want me

How much longer 'til I'm truly alone?
Go guess who I am, in the spotlight, I can't stand to hear a voice that's not my own
Nobody on stage, but they all sing along

And I sit in the car
And I sit in the car
