

how to lie

Jane Remover

Didn't get dressed, but at least I went outside
Didn't go outside, but at least I got dressed
Once again I forgot to shade between my eyes
Take a rest stop, three hours in bed
Heat of the moment, I'm so happy, I could die
"... Those same 'lovely bones' that you wished to be dead?"
My face is red and I just can't stop telling lies
Because I'm just as real as your "dying pet"
The lights will rot and I'm asking myself, "Isn't it time yet?"
(Make some noise!)

I caught too many lies, I fell, I'm breaking the wine set (Make some noise!)

I'm too tired, but I'll run if you tell me I can try (Make some noise!)

I know, I'm too young to die

(Hear y'all make some noise!)

(Hear y'all make some noise!)

(Hear y'all make some noise!)

I know, I'm too young to die-e-e-e
I-I-I know, I'm too young to die
I know, I'm too young to die, oh, oh, oh
Lie, young to die

(Noi-I-se!)

(Y'all make some noise!)

I know, I'm too young to die
I know, I'm too young to die
I know, I'm too young to die
I know, I'm too young to die
