Jane Remover

Head space turns to worms
It's been on my mind lately
At any given moment
When you grace past me
(When you graze past me)
Or has it been too long?
At least you know my name
I always change the channel when the couple starts to kiss

Was it all for a show?
Now I look so stupid for casting the roles
And when the curtains close, I wish that I was in your clothes
I wish that I was in your clothes

Times like these, I try not to get upset
All I do is think about you and this is the thanks I get?
Time passed with a slap to the back of my head
And now you're walking down the aisle with someone you never met

Was it all for a show?
Now I look so stupid for casting the roles
And when the story ends it's another loss for you again
It's another loss for you again

Times like these, I try not to get upset
All I do is think about you and this is the thanks I get?
Time passed with a slap to the back of my head
And now you're walking down the aisle with someone you never met

I'm in love with an airhead that popped my balloon
I can't see the floor, it's too bright in this room
It gets so hard to speak, a commodity
You're picking your berries, revenge is so sweet

Don't act like you didn't care 'cause I know you played a part
And I start to feel so sick whenever I pass by your car
'Cause someone that "you don't like" just "broke your heart"
And he told you that he won't go very far
Said your future don't revolve around art
I wish that I was in your clothes
I wish that I was in your clothes

(I wish that I was in your clothes)
(I wish that I was in your clothes)
