

serial monogamist

Rémy

Took you on a date and then he became your whole personality, yeah
It's only been a day, but you want a place, baby, it's insanity

I guess that I couldn't read a room
Guess you didn't know I needed you
I knew that you would be moving fast
Thought I'd have a little breathing room
You said looking down is not the vibe
Now you're always sending back the wine
Now you're changing almost overnight, yeah

Everybody knew that you would find somebody else
'Cause you're a serial monogamist
I know it felt like dying slow on those nights you slept alone
So you jumped out my arms and into his

And what could have happened to us if you waited?
Something to fight for, you got impatient
I hope you find that feeling you're chasing (I hope it you find it, oh)

Maybe I'm just not that guy
Baby, damn it, must be nice
To always have your next thing waiting for you at the starting line
Brand new life in just a swipe
Don't worry 'bout me, I'm fine
But I would never say

I guess that I couldn't read a room
Guess you didn't know I needed you
I knew that you would be moving fast
Thought I'd have a little breathing room
You said looking down is not the vibe
Now you're always sending back the wine
Now you're changing almost overnight, yeah

Everybody knew that you would find somebody else
'Cause you're a serial monogamist
I know it felt like dying slow on those nights you slept alone
So you jumped out my arms and into his

And what could have happened to us if you waited?
Something to fight for, you got impatient
I hope you find that feeling you're chasing (I hope it you find it, oh)

Everybody knew that you would find somebody else
'Cause you're a serial monogamist
I know it felt like dying slow on those nights you slept alone
So you jumped out my arms and into his (Right into his)

And what could have happened to us if you waited?
Something to fight for, you got impatient
I hope you find that feeling you're chasing (I hope it you find it, oh)
