

Run Away

RÉN

I don't want to hear no words today
Because they pull me under
In the castle of my room I'll hide away
From the outside thunder
Gonna lock my troubles outside of this door
'Cause today it's just me and these four walls

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place', eh-oh

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place'

The light that I hold, it turns to grey
And that makes me wonder
Will I always feel this way?
So far under, but I'll Put my soul on show for everyone to see
'Cause even though it's bruised
I know, it holds such beauty

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place', eh-oh

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place'

Nobody here but me today
But that just makes me stronger
'Cause I'll wash away the pain
Under sheets of feather
Gonna lock my troubles outside of this door
'Cause today it's just me and these four walls

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place', eh-oh

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place', eh-oh

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place', eh-oh

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place'

I said I want to run away (way, way, way,..)
I said I want to run away (way, way, way,..)
I said I want to run away (way, way, way,..)
I said I want to run away (way, way, way,..)

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place', eh-oh

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place', eh-oh

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place', eh-oh

I said 'I want to run away
Fly to another place, fly to another place'

I said I want to run away
I said I want to run
I said I want to run, eh-oh

I said I want to run away
I said I want to run
I said I want to run, eh-oh

I said I want to run away
I said I want to run
I said I want to run, eh-oh

I said I want to run away
I said I want to run
I said I want to run, eh-oh

I don't want to hear no words today
Because they pull me under
In the castle of my room I'll hide away
