

Blood Silver Like Moonlight

Renaissance

A stranger came
Who knew my name
Glowing with light
Out of the night

He whispered a word
That stirred my mind
Then I was sure
I'd seen him before

Let's dance here in the cool night
We'll run through freezing rain
Our blood silver like moonlight
We are the same

Echoes of the future
Unite us with the past
Remember the choir
We sang in the highest order cast

Requiem for beauty
A masterful design
Remember the choir
That sounded sublime

Another life
A view inside
Hold out a hand
Part of a plan

Mountains we find

None left to climb
Captive no more
We've opened the door

Let's dance here in the cool night
We'll run through freezing rain
Our blood silver like moonlight
We are the same

Echoes of the future
(Echoes the future)
Unite us with the past
(Unite the past)

Remember the choir
(I remember the choir)
We sang in the highest order cast
(The highest cast)

Requiem for beauty
A masterful design
Remember the choir
The power
So great that we now fly
(That we now fly away)

So great that we now fly
Away
