

Best Intentions

Rence

Creases on my T-shirt, I've been holding you so closely
I don't need to feel when you taste like candy
My pitcher's empty but there's plenty of what you gave me
I can skip a meal when you taste like

Cigarettes and second guesses
I'm sympathetic but I'm letting go
Just to show you where my head is
The oxygen is pretty thin here
It's obviously sink or swim
And you know
I'm dragging my toes
Tripping over best intentions

Sippin' aesthetic just so I can make it through this week
I don't need to feel when you taste like candy
Apologetic, at my best I'm only semi-sweet
I can skip a meal when you taste like

Cigarettes and second guesses
I'm sympathetic but I'm letting go
Just to show you where my head is
The oxygen is pretty thin here
It's obviously sink or swim
And you know
I'm dragging my toes
Tripping over best intentions

Cigarettes and second guesses
I'm sympathetic but I'm letting go
