Darkside

Rence

All those 3-in-the-morning times
Guess I should've picked up on the warning signs
Should've told you I'm torn inside
I know, know, know, know
But I was caught in the undertow
She was on my arm at the after-show
Still, I didn't feel like you had to know
Oh no, no, no

Swear I'm a nice guy caught in some white lies
I know there's a fine line between me and you
'Cause in the nighttime, I turn a blind eye
I got a dark side, I'll save it for you

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
I'll save it for you
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
I got a dark side, I'll save it for you

Might be caught in the morning (Morning)
Call a cab before she notice
Since she said she can't avoid it
Guess she never saw the warning signs
And if I'm being honest
I'm no good at keeping promises
I tend to do the opposite
You know, know, know

That I'm a nice guy caught in the spotlight
Never meant for this to get between me & you
And if we play our cards right, just for the last time
I got a dark side, I'm saving for you

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
I'll save it for you
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
I got a dark side, I'll save it for you

I'll save it for you (I'll save it for you)
I'll save it for you (I'll save it for you)
I save it for you
I got a dark side, I'll save it for you...
