

i need a vacation

Rence

Don't come over tonight
I heard you talking and talking about how
I'm the one who's still been fucking up your life
You know that ain't right

It's on you
You get lonely, shit gets boring
3 in the morning you call me
I come through
I'm not worried, if you want me
Then you got me, quit acting sorry

I just had to say it
Pick a side if you're playing or we're both gonna lose
Why you still here if you hate it?
Pick a side if you're playing. I've been over it ooh
I think I need a vacation

You arrive like you always do
Funny 'cause I heard you tell your friends we're through Funny 'cause I'd rather laugh than yell at you
It's a little sad I only have half of you

But I swear I ain't tripping
I'll take the half I can get
But if you're giving me half
You're getting half my respect
I'll love you if/when I see you
I do not practice neglect
That's just not how I was raised
But baby don't you forget

It's on you
You get lonely, shit gets boring
3 in the morning you call me
I come through
I'm not worried, if you want me
Then you got me, quit acting sorry

You know I don't Need you here at all
So just don't get all cold
If you can't let go then that's all your fault

I just had to say it
Pick a side if you're playing or we're both gonna lose
Why you still here if you hate it?
Pick a side if you're playing. I've been over it ooh
I think I need a vacation
