

Lavender

Rence

I was at work for the past day
So I came lookin' like a bad day
Knew you'd call me that day
So I dodged that like sashay

Now I got
Missed calls on the phone (yeah)
I don't wanna live here alone (yeah)
But you been treating me so wrong (yeah)
And I don't even wanna go (I don't even wanna go)

I don't even wanna go home (go home)
And you're mad 'cause my wrist really froze
Hittin' my name you the most
And I just been smoking on dope, sure
Part of it [?] like a poster
Part of it wet need a coaster

Don't you say a single prayer for me
In this shit like I have to be
Movin' on so carefully
How long will you be there for me
Things are coming soon you'll see
Oh please just hold on to me

Don't say a prayer for me
Don't you even dare honey
Look at me like you're scared of me
Turn the lights off now you're scared of me
Like "Woah, you caught me by surprise"
Don't with those eyes

Don't you say a single prayer for me
In this shit like I have to be
Movin' on so carefully
How long will you be there for me
Things are coming soon you'll see
Oh please just hold on to me
