

Space For You

Rence

I been up in the mornin'
Check my phone while I'm yawnin'
Yeah I'm missing you callin'
But I had to be honest
I was late to my day shift
'Cause you wanted conversation
I gave you validation
But you won't give me your patience

I put on a face for you
Made space for you
And you're pissing me off
Took the time to wait for you
Split the safe with you
And you're doing me wrong
Now I tried erasing you
But the taste of you it still lingers on

How do I move on?

This the way it has to be?
Shoulda let things flow naturally
You broke my heart so damn casually
I'm the casualty

I had doubts, didn't show it
You did not even notice
If I'm losing my focus
Then it's totally hopeless
I know that by myself now
Won't be needing your help now
I ain't saying I blame you
Put that all on myself now

I put on a face for you
Made space for you
And you're pissing me off
Took the time to wait for you
Split the safe with you
And you're doing me wrong
Now I tried erasing you
But the taste of you it still lingers on

How do I move on?

This the way it has to be?
Shoulda let things flow naturally
You broke my heart so damn casually
I'm the casualty
