

Too Many Times

Rence

Too many times I've been alone
Too many times wanted to pick up the phone
Too many times I know, I know
That I've messed this up
And I fucked you up

You had no choice, but I did
So you kept it closed off like eyelid
And you to the sky in the night
In my mind, in my eyes
Always see you every time

Oh, you better know
(You better know)
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
And you've been so strong
(You've been so strong)
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
I hate it on my own
(I hate it on my own)
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
I needed you all along
(I needed you all along)
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa

25 rings on my iPhone
But none of these fools are my friends
And I've been here thinkin' all night long
How everybody loves to pretend
They only hit me up when they need me
But when the favor's wrapped around, they ain't there
They tryna look me in my eyes, but don't see me
And they be calling while I'm walking on air, walking on ice
Didn't bother a second, will I fall? I just might

But even if I slip, I know that I'ma be alright
I swear I'm gonna be the dawn
And I ain't wasting any time
With this simple shit, I run the game
I shit and saw you sizzling
They say they love the songs
But I don't think they even listening
They only hang around because they know
The fame is imminent
Now listen to my hook, man
I can feel you fuckers stiffening

Oh, you better know
(You better know)
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
(You've been so strong)

Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
I hate it on my own
(I hate it on my own)
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
I needed you all along
(I needed you all along)
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa

I hate it on my own
Oh, whoa, whoa
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa
I needed you all along
Oh, whoa, whoa

Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
