

Trebuchet

Rence

Heaven sent and homebound
Arms up, touch sky and we celebrate
All you did was slow down
Cut ties now I'm gone like trebuchet
Angels singing so loud
So loud
Heaven sent and homebound
Heaven sent and homebound

Off day up and I'm energized
Most days I'm just tryna stay alive
Up all night tryna feed my Soul
Hindsight do keep me up at night
So I get high as the satellites
Make my peace and let it
Go

Cause I'm
Heaven sent and homebound
Arms up, touch sky and we celebrate
All you did was slow down
Cut ties now I'm gone like trebuchet
Angels singing so loud
So loud
Heaven sent and homebound
Heaven sent and homebound

I'm not lost so don't come looking
Just pulled back to keep on pushing
If you need a little space
Say oh
Oh
I'm not lost so don't come looking
Just pulled back to keep on pushing
If you need a little space
Say oh
Oh

Heaven sent and homebound
Arms up, touch sky and we celebrate
All you did was slow down
Cut ties now I'm gone like trebuchet
Angels singing so loud
So loud
Heaven sent and homebound

What do you expect after 25 years?
Come on in and make yourself at home

Heaven sent and homebound
Arms up, touch sky and we celebrate
All you did was slow down
Cut ties now I'm gone like trebuchet
Angels singing so loud
So loud

Heaven sent and homebound
