

DEFIANT

Rend Collective

I will not go quietly, I will not go silently
Into the night, let praises rise
Though my doubts are taunting me, and my fears are deafening
Here in the night, let praises rise

From the valley of defeat, oh, oh, oh
Comes a cry of victory

Defiant against the darkness
I will declare Your goodness
In the highs (In the highs) in the lows (In the lows)
In the winter of my soul
Defiant until the breakthrough
Trusting the mountain will move
In the highs (In the highs) in the lows (In the lows)
You will never let me go

I will sing Your faithfulness, louder than my brokenness
Into the night, let praises rise
'Cause You'll stand and fight for me, You are right beside me
Here in the night, let praises rise

From the valley of defeat, oh, oh, oh
Comes a cry of victory, oh

Defiant against the darkness
I will declare Your goodness
In the highs (In the highs) in the lows (In the lows)
In the winter of my soul
Defiant until the breakthrough
Trusting the mountain will move
In the highs (In the highs) in the lows (In the lows)
You will never let me go
In the highs, in the lows

Nothing and no one can steal my joy
Nothing and no one can steal my joy
Nothing and no one can steal my joy
Nothing and no one can steal my joy

Defiant against the darkness
I will declare Your goodness
In the highs (In the highs) in the lows (In the lows)
In the winter of my soul
Defiant until the breakthrough
Trusting the mountain will move
In the highs (In the highs) in the lows (In the lows)
You will never let me go

I will not go silently
Into the night, let praises rise
