

Just A Glimpse

Rend Collective

Breath of God will You breathe on me like a hurricane?
Fill the sails of my heart once more like a rushing wind?
Flame of God will You spark something in my soul again?
If we are embers then surely You are the oxygen
You're my oxygen

Just a glimpse of You
Sets my soul on fire forever
Just a taste of You
And my world's alive with wonder
Just one touch from You
Fills my heart beyond all measure
Open my eyes, invade my life
My Lord

Light of God will You shine through me in my brokenness?
Raise a torch, burn a path for me through the wilderness?
Voice of God will You call me into Your radiance?
Cos we are sinners but surely You are the saving grace
You're my saving grace

Just a glimpse of You
Sets my soul on fire forever
Just a taste of You
And my world's alive with wonder
Just one touch from You
Fills my heart beyond all measure
Open my eyes, invade my life
My Lord

I can't do this without You
You're my fire
You're my fire
I can't do this without You, Lord

I am reaching out for you
My desire
My desire
I am reaching out for You, Lord

Just a glimpse of You
Sets my soul on fire forever
Just a taste of You
And my world's alive with wonder
Just one touch from You
Fills my heart beyond all measure
Open my eyes, invade my life
My Lord
