I'm a blank page, you're the author
I'm the canvas, you're the painter
Oh, my story isn't over
From the heartbreak, from the hurting
Lord I know that you are moving
Oh, come and do a new thing

When I haven't seen the answer to my prayer
Lord I still believe there's a miracle to spare

You got plans for me
You got plans for me
Greater than my wildest dreams
Stronger than the enemy
You got plans for me
You got plans for me
Even in my worst defeat
Will you give me faith to see
You got plans for me
Plans for me

Looking back on all my failings
All the endings were beginnings
Oh, You were always working

If I lose my way and all my strength is gone
Lord I still believe there are better days to come

You got plans for me
You got plans for me
Greater than my wildest dreams
Stronger than the enemy
You got plans for me
You got plans for me
Even in my worst defeat
Will you give me faith to see
You got plans for me
Plans for me

When I haven't seen the answer to my prayer
Lord I still believe there's a miracle to spare

Your promises are yes and amen
Your purposes are yes and amen
Your people crying yes and amen
Your praise is rising yes and amen

Your promises are yes and amen
Your purposes are yes and amen
Your people crying yes and amen
Your praise is rising

You got plans for me
You got plans for me

Greater than my wildest dreams
Stronger than the enemy
You got plans for me
You got plans for me
Even in my worst defeat
Will you give me faith to see
You got plans for me
