

Trying to Win Your Love

Renee Olstead

I'm no good with words
Yeah I bite my tongue
I've said some foolish things
But what's done is done
Sorry, baby
Know that I was just
I just trying to win your love

See I fall in love
Much too easily
[?] in some things
I just couldn't see
Oh sorry, baby
Know that I was just
I just trying to win your love

And I do believe
What's good for me
Oh, I used to turn and run
Oh but darlin', there's no other way
Oh, I know I don't want no one but you
And I will never give you up
Trying to win your love

I may be slow
Yeah I drag my feet
Oh sometimes I forget
That love is a two-way street
Oh I'm sorry, baby
Know that I was just
Just trying to win your love
Yeah I was just
Trying to win your love
