

I Do

Reneé Rapp

I leave a key in my mailbox just for you
So you don't call you're coming over, you just do
We fall asleep on the couch, I refuse to move
'Cause it's the only time that I'm ever sleeping next to you

And then you get comfortable on my shoulder
I thank my lucky stars, but, it's tearing me apart, 'cause

You don't see us like I do
You don't see us from my view
It's like we're both looking up, and I'm under a storm
And you're seeing sky-blue
When we're saying, "I love you"
I mean it different than you do
Terrified I always will even after the day
You look at somebody else and you say, "I do"

When you go on and on about things that you believe
Yeah, that's the closest to God that I will ever be
We don't need to talk, our eyes can speak
I only need one sign to match your energy

And everyone knows it's us against the world
I thank my lucky stars, but, it's tearing me apart, 'cause

You don't see us like I do
You don't see us from my view
It's like we're both looking up, and I'm under a storm
And you're seeing sky-blue
When we're saying, "I love you"
I mean it different than you do
Terrified I always will even after the day
You look at somebody else and you say, "I do"

I do, I do, I do
(You look at somebody else and you say)

I'll love you 'til there's no blood left in my heart
(Love you 'til there's no blood left in my heart)
She'll look back at you, say, "'Til death do us part"
(Death do us part)

But she won't see it like I do
She won't see it from my view
It's like we're both looking up, and I'm under a storm
And you're seeing sky-blue
When we're saying, "I love you"
I mean it different than you do
Terrified I always will even after the day
You look at somebody else and you say, "I do"
