

Mad

René Rapp

Take five, we've been at it all night
Not a sorry in the world I ain't already said
Ugh, Christ, gettin' hard to be nice
Not a single little curl that's on your head don't want me dead
Okay, I get it, you wanna be mad

I wish I could take that pretty little face
And shake some sense into you like

Hey, you
All of the time you wasted being mad
We could've been cute and we could've been stupid
Hey, you
All of the time you wasted in your head
We could've been having sex, you could've been gettin'
All of my time, but you were being mad

Okay, you can pout your lips, puff on a cigarette
Face all Marlboro red
Slow down, put my finger in your mouth
Pull the bitter taste out, baby, you can have me instead
Okay, I get it, you wanna be mad

I wish I could take that pretty little face
And shake some sense into you like

Hey, you
All of the time you wasted being mad
We could've been cute and we could've been stupid
Hey, you
All of the time you wasted in your head
We could've been having sex, you could've been gettin'
All of my time, but you were being mad

Don't give me that shoulder, come get closer
God, it's pissing me off
I wanna get mad at you right back at you
But it's kind of hot

All of the time you wasted being mad
We could've been cute and we could've been stupid
Hey, you
All of the time you were fucking with my head
We could've been having sex, you could've been gettin'
All of my time, but you were being mad

Could've been gettin' head
