

Sometimes

Reneé Rapp

You tell me you love me
You say that you care
Bring me to the party
Then you leave me stranded there

I thought I could do it
Thought I could be fun
Now I'm breakin' all my rules

At night you say things you don't mean in the morning
And I won't play the part anymore

If I can't have you
Then let me find someone else
I'm tired of being a good time
It's killing me having you sometimes
If you still want her
Then leave me here by myself
I know what I said but it's not fine
It's killing me having you sometimes
Sometimes

And god, I know this is predictable
But I need you more than just physical
It's eating me alive
Just thinking 'bout the nights you're by her side
So if you're gonna let me go, let me go
'Cause getting over you is gonna take a toll
Please don't make it worse, I need to know

'Cause if I can't have you
Then let me find someone else
I'm tired of being a good time
It's killing me having you sometimes
If you still want her
Then leave me here by myself
I know what I said but it's not fine
It's killing me having you sometimes
Sometimes

I know what I signed up for
And you don't owe me much more
But don't deny you and I feel a little different
Than we did on the first night
Just tell me that I'm so dumb
And how I got it all wrong
But it's easier to lie

But if I can't have you
Then let me find someone else
I'm tired of being a good time
It's killing me having you sometimes
If you still want her
Then leave me here by myself
I know what I said but it's not fine
It's killing me having you sometimes
Sometimes
