

Swim

Reneé Rapp

I took the medicine
But I'm up in the middle of the night again
Same beginning middle
But still no end
Back at the beginning with you
I'm gonna toss and turn
Whisper in my pillow
Will I ever learn?
How could waterboarding feel so good at first?
Oh, to be swimming with you

On and on and on we go
Thoughts of you are soft as snow
Eyes get heavy, heart gets slow

Every night, I sleep under water
Follow you like lamb to a slaughter
Fast asleep but no time to rest
Gotta swim, swim, swim
Keep holding my breath
Dreams of us, they turn into nightmares
If it's love, then why do I feel scared?
Hear a voice inside of my head
Saying, "Swim, swim, swim
As fast as you can"

On and on and on we go
Thoughts of you are soft as snow
Eyes get heavy, heart gets slow

I never stood a chance
The original ending of a true romance
Guess I'm destined for the role of Juliet
Rather be dead than confused
Mm, mm
'Cause it don't make sense
How can we get out of this
With no rush yet?
The longer it goes on
There's only one the end
Oh, to be swimming with you

On and on and on we go
Thoughts of you are soft as snow
Eyes get heavy, heart gets slow

Every night, I sleep under water
Follow you like lamb to a slaughter
Fast asleep but no time to rest
Gotta swim, swim, swim
Keep holding my breath
Dreams of us, they turn into nightmares
If it's love, then why do I feel scared?
Hear a voice inside of my head
Saying, "Swim, swim, swim
As fast as you can"

On and on and on we go
Thoughts of you are soft as snow
Eyes get heavy, heart gets slow
Swim, swim, swim as fast as you can
On and on and on we go
Thoughts of you are soft as snow
Eyes get heavy, heart gets slow
Swim, swim, swim as fast as you can
