

Seven Days

Renegade Five

I hope you'll find
A little peace in your heart
(Cause you will need it)
Since we went apart
I can't sleep at all
(Can't find an ending)

As long as you are better than
My broken heart
(I will survive it)
Cause no one has ever touched me
The way that you did
I'm deep in my frustration

Seven days and seven nights
A week is more than I can take
I'm losing it all
I'm a fool without you, baby
Seven days and seven nights
I don't understand
How to make it right
I've been constantly aware of you
For seven days and seven nights

I have hope in my heart
As I'm counting the days
(Forgot the numbers)
And as the days go by
I'm losing my faith
(I'm going under)

The ice because the things I said
That made you leave
(Too many changes)
Wisdom of life
Is what I have found
I'm deep in my frustration

Seven days and seven nights
A week is more than I can take
I'm losing it all
I'm a fool without you, baby
Seven days and seven nights
I don't understand
How to make it right
I've been constantly aware of you
For seven days and seven nights

Keep on waiting for an answer
Even if I know the truth
Lays deep inside my heart

Seven days and seven nights
A week is more than I can take
I'm losing it all
I'm a fool without you, baby

I don't understand
I've been constantly aware of you
For seven days and seven nights
