renforshort

I think I'll take the long way home
Cause I never get the opportunity to walk alone
I miss you but I kind of don't
I slide our love into the pockets of my coat

It's not forever
It's just a temporary fix
Oh, how I needed it

I think about me without you

I'm on the pathway
Along the serpentine
Hard to stay grounded when your thoughts are way too light
It doesn't mean that you're not heavy on my mind
I just need to think about me without you sometimes

It's not like me to slow life down
I get scared of what I hide and how it finds its own way out
So I count my steps just let it drown
I keep tracing little circles going round and round and round

It's not forever
It's just a break that's what it is
A lullaby I've missed

I think about me without you

I'm on the pathway
Along the serpentine
Hard to stay grounded when your thoughts are way too light
It doesn't mean that you're not heavy on my mind
I just need to think about me without you sometimes

Lately
I think too much
My head races
Lost in the flood
But I love you
And I swear that I do

I'm on the pathway
Along the serpentine
Hard to stay grounded when your thoughts are way too light
It doesn't mean that you're not heavy on my mind
I just need to think about me without you sometimes
