Renni Rucci

Don't be so insecure, I can't stand that shit, man
Jody, if I'm insecure it's because you made me this way
All you do is think about yourself
Why did you have to fuck that girl out of all the people, damn
Hey Rich, you turned me up on this one

I'ma have to dip on you
Gotta hit the switch on you
Don't go callin' my phone
When all them bitches be gone
Yeah, I'ma have to shit on you
All the shit we been through
Thought I had a lover and a friend in you
Didn't hold me down, you wasn't around
And I was still trying to defend you
I'ma have to dip on you
Gotta hit the switch on you
Don't go callin' my phone
When all them bitches be gone
Yeah, I'ma have to shit on you
All the shit we been through
Thought I had a lover and a friend in you
Didn't hold me down, you wasn't around
And I was still trying to defend you

I'm blowing up your phone, you ain't call back
I don't need your money, I got tall racks
Playin' all these games while you stalling
I gave you all of me, I want it all back
Sippin' on this Henny got me thinkin'
I even let you fuck from the deep end
I never gave the pole to you safe
Fuck getting my cake up, thank God for the break-up
See I got trust issues
And I ain't have these bitches but I fuck with you
While you was creepin' with these bitches, I was loving you
I don't even understand how I got stuck with you or why I fuck with you
Or try my luck with you
You gon' regret the day that you lost me
You gon' regret the day that you crossed me
Fuck a bitch every day and she still can't compete
With a bitch like me, nah' mean?
Know you miss the ass off in my jeans
Used to get nasty, be your bad lil' ting
Don't sip no codeine, gangsta lean on these niggas
Don't ask me about 'em, you don't see me with 'em

I'ma have to dip on you
Gotta hit the switch on you
Don't go callin' my phone
When all them bitches be gone
Yeah, I'ma have to shit on you
All the shit we been through
Thought I had a lover and a friend in you
Didn't hold me down, you wasn't around
And I was still trying to defend you
I'ma have to dip on you

Gotta hit the switch on you
Don't go callin' my phone
When all them bitches be gone
Yeah, I'ma have to shit on you
All the shit we been through
Thought I had a lover and a friend in you
Didn't hold me down, you wasn't around
And I was still trying to defend you

Just slow it down, real high like the siren
Bad bitch, red bone, walkin' like the stallion
Kick it on the island, sell it by the thousand
Do this shit together, we can let the money pile up
Boy, you get left, I ain't waitin' on you
Try to break my heart, I leave 'em dead, need a halo
You stand in the gallery, I know we havin' plenty Peter
Steppin' on these hoes, big Renni, I got rank on me
Keep the thing on me
You was comin' home any time of the morning
I give it to you whenever you want it
Make you say my name whenever I'm on it
I got a 'ship and I don't even want it
Why you had to do me like that?
Won't let another nigga get to me like that
Now you gotta pay for all the shit you made up
Real bad bitch, I ain't never need makeup
I heard your new bitch ain't fuckin' with me
She don't compare, no, she can't even compete
Pussy so good, it'll put you to sleep
Don't need no rags, you know I'm a freak
Yeah, you know I'm a freak
Whole lot of spittin', I don't ever use teeth
Whole lot of street shit comin' from a G bitch
Boy, you had a real one, you couldn't even keep it

I'ma have to dip on you
Gotta hit the switch on you
Don't go callin' my phone
When all them bitches be gone
Yeah, I'ma have to shit on you
All the shit we been through
Thought I had a lover and a friend in you
Didn't hold me down, you wasn't around
And I was still trying to defend you
I'ma have to dip on you
Gotta hit the switch on you
Don't go callin' my phone
When all them bitches be gone
Yeah, I'ma have to shit on you
All the shit we been through
Thought I had a lover and a friend in you
Didn't hold me down, you wasn't around
And I was still trying to defend you
