Change

repeat offender

As I take down these notes on paper,
I am obsessed by thought that I may be the last living man on Earth..

Change!
Change that you disagree.

I'm walking the pavement, I'm looking for change,
No coins, Just an empty grave,
You're blind, As blind as me,
And we both know where that leads..

Open your mind, Your mind, And you'll see a coloured sky,
Open your eyes, Your eyes, And believe...
Yeah, I want you to, I want you to...Change!

Change that you disagree,
Get some spine, Do it for me,
Change, that you disagree,
Change your mind, rearrange me..

I'm the feeling the warmth,
That I once though was you,
And it makes me so god damn happy,
When I see that you have moved,
You hunger for more, But you bide your time,
But it won't, But it won't, But it won't,
Just naturally subside..

I'm looking for change,
But you give me same old, same old, old,
I'm looking for change,
Feeling reckless, Feeling down,
I'm looking for change,
CHANGE!

Someone once said, I'm sick of all this bullshit,
In my head, Reassure me that,
I still hate to find, Same answer,
Said every fuckin' time,
I'm so glad you're leaving,
Talking in my fuckin' head I'm dreaming...

I'm looking for change,
But you give me same old, same old, old,
I'm looking for change,
CHANGE!
