

Bloodlust

Resolve

Set fire to the house
Set fire to the hearts
Surrender to the mania
Bloodlust

Tame, succumb or defeat

Six feet deep in the gray
Gotta find a way out
Gotta find a new place to incinerate
This is stronger than me
Not saying I ain't sorry
But what do you want me to say?
Ashes swirl in the air
Pale dust falls on my head
I'll burn the whole map, pyromaniac
Burn the whole world so I don't have to cover my tracks

Set my home ablaze, vanished in the haze
All I've ever loved went up in smoke
Now that there's nothing left

I'll be the sword that cuts through all your hopes and dreams
I'll be the truth that shatters all you believe in
Can't stop me
Undying, corrosive
I stand my ground, I wear my crown

I feel the fire running from my veins
Many more stories to tell
Aspire to the sky
Burning bright
Now watch me dance in the flames

Tame, succumb or defeat

One last match in the pack
Going for a new lap
Out of control, guess the mania's back
Just a mad man scared of moonlight
Rather burn my iris than
See the truth eye to eye
Stand up and face my crimes
See through me as I am
Fear my final breath

I'll perish in the fire that I created
Yeah I'll drag you all with me in hell

Undying, corrosive
Set fire to the house
Set fire to the hearts
Bloodlust

I feel the fire running from my veins

Burning bright
I feel the fire taking over me
All the stories end the same
Everything falls apart
And now is my time
So watch me die in the flames
