

Comfortably Dumb

Resolve

It's just another day for you and me in paradise, or so they say
Singing myself to sleep with lullabies, numbing the pain
Blue pill, red pill, just keep bringing me that
What is dead may never die, don't fear the heart attack

Shots, shots, long drink, more shots, wasted
Just give me one more hour to exist
Am I the king of the world or a lonely shipwreck?
Am I binge-living or drinking myself to death?

Every morning I resurrect, let's do it again
Consume it all until the very last gram
I ain't no man, living breathing dynamite
I'll never know peace, my demons keep me hanging on

Half full
Half empty

Half there
Surfacing

Half full
Half empty
The glass doesn't matter, I'm a bottomless pit
Half there
Surfacing
A ghost craving for its lethal medicine

Shots, shots, long drink, more shots, wasted
Just give me one more hour to exist
Am I the king of the world or a lonely shipwreck?
Am I binge-living or drinking myself to death?

Cracks in the wall of glass
Turning my head to the signs
My own persecutor
Swimming deep in the nectar
Couldn't care less for your sympathy
Don't waste your time cause I'm
Comfortably dumb

Time for another round of
Shots, shots, long drink, more shots, wasted
Just give me one more hour to exist
Am I the king of the world or a lonely shipwreck?
Am I binge-living or drinking myself to death?
