Resolve

Keep loosing myself in the same wide black space
The same old questions run in again and again
Barely recognize myself, going lunatic
Why do I dwell on the promises I'll never keep?

Scarify the storyline
Over my skin
So I never forget
Who I was and who I am

Singing sad stories
Singing sad stories all around
Paving my own way with spines
Please stay out of the line
I'm lost in my own head
Growing the pain
Guess I can say I'm my worst enemy
Gone for a long time
Watcher of my own life
I'm just a ghost
In overdose
Knowing I'm the only one to blame
Only one to blame

Scarify the storyline
Over my skin
So I never forget
Who I was and who I am
Fossilize, transcend through the times
Carry over the failures
So they keep me alive
Force me to feel till I die

Open my eyes, beneath my eyelids a living hell
(Won't reach the surface)
I am the heretic, the leader of the lost
(It does not exist)
Staggering figure, act as I say not as I do

Judge me for what I am, miserable
Oh current, carry me where I deserve to go
So scared and under pressure, my tears could fill an ocean
Burnt out and under pressure, my bones turn into diamond
Rock in a lake
Gone in a blink
I won't reach the surface
Cause it doesn't exist
So let me dive in the depth
Till I finally learn
How to breathe underwater
