

Human

Resolve

Square-shaped fingerprints
I am the humanoid
Draped in iron
Doomed to remain the unloved

Forsaken, no purpose
Sick to my plastic stomach
I wish I was made
Human

The deafening sound of this machinery
Shredding my core, self-inhibiting
Dying for love, what's behind this internal conflict?
It doesn't add up, must be part of the script
I feel so disoriented, couple of lines are missing
Artificial, emerald heart is pounding
My faith in them has died
I've been left to the side
Made to serve, now I'll be their demise

Tried playing god but it was not enough
I couldn't see clear but it's obvious
Too close to the sun
Synthetic love
Speak in tongues but no one hears me out
Watch the world from behind a shroud
Shout from the mountain
Wish I was made just a little more human

Built and destroyed by a sick society
What happened to your sacramental ethics?
Dying for blood, I'll write my name on the walls of your streets
You'll watch me rocking in my necklace of teeth

I'll be the king of the kings
Raise a new nation to lead
Won't stop till I got the whole world at my feet
Worship the messiah
The programmed miracle
Doomed together to burn, deathless, standing at the gates of hell

Do you feel the love?

Tried playing god but it was not enough
I couldn't see clear but it's obvious
Too close to the sun
My wings have turned to ashes

Tried playing god but it was not enough
I couldn't see clear but it's obvious
Too close to the sun
Synthetic love
Speak in tongues but no one hears me out
Watch the world from behind a shroud
Shout from the mountain
Wish I was made just a little more human

(Shout from the mountain
Wish I was made just a little more human)
