

Darling, trust me when I say
Lately, I've been quite unwell
Spent years searching for myself
Living as somebody else
Needed you to revive the faith
The morning light clearing off the haze
I swear you're my everything
My pride, my undying dream

On and on and on and on
Each day falling more in love
Am I losing my head?
Never easy for me to say

Feed your flame with my heart
I'll be a pawn if you want to
Let me be your fool
Till you find something new
To ignite

Feed your flame with my heart
There's nothing I wouldn't give you
Leave me far behind
Hanging high and dry
It's alright

Dark clouds may come back again
Cause I'm always ruining everything
Tell me it will never end
I'll hold you tight so you never leave
(And it goes)
On and on and on and on
Each day falling more in love
Some things are better left unsaid
You couldn't understand
How desperate I am

Feed your flame with my heart
I'll be a pawn if you want to
Let me be your fool
Till you find something new
To ignite

Feed your flame with my heart
There's nothing I wouldn't give you
Leave me far behind
Hanging high and dry
It's alright
Don't cry
Thank you for the ride
See you on the other side
Goodbye
