

In Stone

Resolve

Written in stone
I'm counting your names
Where did you go?
Guess you crossed the last step

Beautiful souls
You will be missed
Down on earth
This journey ends

Maybe we'll meet in another place
Maybe we'll start again somewhere else
Maybe we'll roam
Maybe we'll sleep
Maybe we'll live without counting our time
Maybe we'll finally learn to forgive
Maybe we'll love more than we hate

Broken my vows
I must confess
Swore I'd never tremble
But sometimes I'm scared
Awaiting the fall
Counting my mistakes
Wish I could have said goodbye
If I can't stop the time
I'll write a thousand songs and more to keep you alive

Maybe we'll meet in another place
Maybe we'll start again somewhere else
Maybe we'll roam
Maybe we'll sleep
Maybe we'll live without counting our time
Maybe we'll finally learn to forgive
Maybe we'll love more than we hate

Written in stone
I'll carry your tales
Till the end
