

Blitzkrieg

Reuben

In a funny kind of way, you're beautiful
In a funny way, I am too
In a funny way I think I know what you're all about

See I know the things that have happened to you
And they were awful but you got this far
And I know you think you're not ready to move on, oh

But you are, you are
You are, you are
You are, oh yes you are
You are, you are

Take a look at everything that's in your way
And I will help you to remove it all
I will carry all the bits and pieces of you

And you don't have to be better right away,
But you will laugh again, I promise, one day
And I know you think you're just not capable now, no,

But you are, you are
You are, yes you are
You are, you are
You are, you are

If a thing doesn't kill us, it makes strong
That's what I've learned
And every lesson we learn makes us older
You lost a person you love and you say
"Oh, it broke my heart"
It broke your heart
And you don't think that you're healing
But I told you, you are

Oh you are, you are
You are, you are
You are, you are
You are, you are
You are, you are
You are, you are
