Victim

Reuben

Smile and in a gentle voice
Tell me you love me
Friends forever, always
Holding my hand

But now I, I see stars in your eyes
And you would let them die
Watch them fade in the sky
For me, happily...

Time goes so slowly
When shared between the two
For years you protected me
Kept me safe and warm

But now I, I see those stars in your eyes
And every star now dies
There were things you'd hide
But you told me everything

I was your best friend
And you trusted me

But I lied to you
I have always lied to you
I destroyed you
I have always laughed at you

I betrayed you
And it was me who made you cry
And it was me who made you cry
