

My Killers

Rev Theory

We've got them hanging at the brink
No time for moderation
Pray on their desperation

The lives we hold through lies we take control
Design the crime one hit and run

My head, my heart, my killers
Will you play, will you play the part
My love, my hate, my killers
We can take, we could take it all

We've got them feeding from our hands
Painted with indiscretion
Buy into the deception

Follow the road these streets are paved with gold
The dream we sold one hit and run

My head, my heart, my killers
Will you play, will you play the part
My love, my hate, my killers
We can take, we could take it all

My killers, my killers, my killers
My love, my hate, my killers

Driven by greed we make the call
To feed the selfish animal
We sell the dream at any cost
One life, one life
One chance to live before we die

My killers...

My head, my heart, my killers
Will you play, will you play the part
My love, my hate, my killers
We can take, we could take it all

My head, my heart, my killers
Will you play, will you play the part
My love, my hate, my killers
We can take, we could take it all

My killers...

My love, my hate, my killers
