

Hellish Hammer

Revenge

In the land of dark braves
The sky and sun now is gray
Satanic thunder, devil's reign
Adrenaline runs through my veins

I have seen the fire in your face
I'm back and vengeance on my way
Violence and blood, fire and pain
Hellish hammer, here I am

I got the power of rage in my soul
I hail to the evil gods

Baptized in fire and steel
With them all no fear
Hammers fill the air
Hell forces cause it's here to stay

I have seen the fire in your face
I'm back and vengeance on my way
Violence and blood, fire and pain
Hellish hammer, here I am

I got the power of rage in my soul
I hail to the evil gods
